

on comment of proceeding, allowing use of cell phones onboard aircraft during flight. I strongly oppose the restriction being lifted to allow passengers to use cell phones. As a flight attendant we have no proof or studies that show cellphone usage can interfere with navigational systems aboard commercial aircraft. Not only is this an issue but a disrespect and annoyance for other passengers trying to enjoy a flight. I strongly oppose this proposal.